

1984/1985 Festivals

The 1984 Festival included a village Variety Show:

Photos: David Edwards

There was also an exhibition of women in the community, a pottery display, floral displays in Christ Church and the Methodist Chapel.

On the Green were stalls and a range of special attractions including campanology and keep fit.

The children's fancy dress parade went from the village green and was headed by a Roman legionnaire from the XXth Legion.

At the Royal British Legion grounds were stalls and sideshows, vintage cars, a beer tent and silver band.

There was an open air service on the Green and gardens open at Willaston Grange.

1985

1985 Show in the Church Hall

