

Christmas 1951

The white horse is pulling Father Christmas on a sleigh along Neston Road.

The light coloured building beyond Atworth Terrace on the left used to be the Post Office. The adverts on the barn which belonged to Church Farm were for MJ Hale, corn and provender merchants and The Barn Café.

(Photo and information taken from: Yesterday's East Wirral by Ian Bournemouth and reprinted with permission)