

Hadlow Road Station

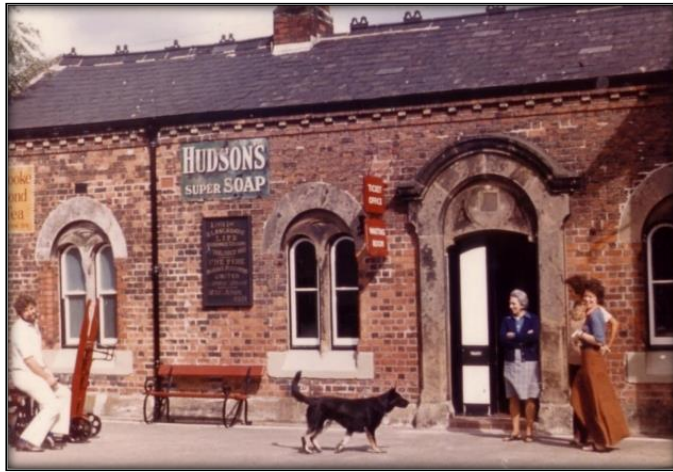

Hadlow Road Station was refurbished in the early 1970s.

Before refurbishment

It was opened by Lord Leverhume (Lord Lieutenant of Cheshire) as a historical attraction on 1st October 1973.

In 1979, the station earned a commendation as one of the best preserved stations in the country.