

Little Sutton Station in 1914. A group of local men were photographed before going off to war. The man with the little boy is Sam Worral and the little boy is Walter Cartwright. There are seven brothers of the Lloyd family in the picture; Sam, Bob, George, Tom, David, and Stephen of Hooton Green. Only one, Stephen, was killed in action, and his name is on the Cenotaph in Childer Thornton.