

Willaston Village Shows in the 1980s

The show in 1981 celebrated 50 years of the Royal British Legion. The show was Cavalcade, a play by Noel Coward, which included scenes from the First World War. The shows were put on by the Ladies Choir but as the men got more involved, this led to the formation of the mixed choir (now Hadlow Green Singers)

(Photos: Margaret Delmotte)

Front row, left to right:
Effie Houghton,
unknown, Polly
Lamb, Norma
Doherty and
Margaret Delmotte

Sister Suzie sewing
shirts for soldiers

(From left to right:
Unknown, unknown,
Margaret Delmotte,
Norma Doherty,
unknown, Kay Ruddock)

Food queue

Evacuation
From left to right:
Unknown, Caroline Mash,
Michelle Jacks, Karen
Pugh, Alison Clarke, Moira
Lloyd, Lisa Harman, others unknown

1982 Music Hall (Photos: Margaret Delmotte)

From left to right:
Sandra Bargery, Margaret
Delmotte, Viv Ritchie

Front row, left to right:
Olwyn Savage,
Gordon Watson,
Ken Shelbourne,
Viv Ritchie
In purple: Angela
Watson

1984 Show (Photo: Margaret Delmotte)

1985 Show (Photos: David Edwards)

This was performed by the Dance School run by Miss Gill. Meg Forrester organised the music and did piano lessons. Tom Ainsworth did the lighting.

