

Willaston Country Market under Covid 19 Restrictions

In March 2020, the country was affected by the Covid 19 pandemic and several lockdowns were imposed. Once the country began to re-open, guidelines for safe activity included social distancing measures and masks.

These photos show the Country Market during that time.

(Photos: Margaret Callender)

